

Summary

MonkeyBars is dedicated to providing a welcoming and harassment-free conference experience for everyone, regardless of gender, gender identity and expression, age, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, or religion.

Sexual language and imagery is not appropriate for any conference venue, including talks, workshops, the vendor hall, parties, Twitter and other online media.

What Defines Harassment?

Harassment includes offensive verbal comments related to gender, age, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, religion, sexual images in public spaces, deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, harassing photography or recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention.

Participants asked to stop any harassing behavior are expected to comply immediately. Any event participant who engages in harassing behavior may be asked to leave the venue.

If You Need Help

If you are being harassed, notice that someone else is being harassed, or have any other concerns, please contact a member of conference staff immediately. Conference staff can be identified as they'll be wearing branded badges.

If the matter is especially urgent, please contact either of these individuals:

Taylor Harvey. taylor@monkeybars.io 312-860-8093
Van Mac. van@monkeybars.io

MonkeyBars staff will be happy to help participants contact venue security or local law enforcement, provide escorts, or otherwise assist those experiencing harassment to feel safe for the duration of the conference. We value your attendance and are committed to your safety and security.
